

A FILM REVIEW: EIGHT BASQUE SURNAMES

"Eight Basque Surnames" is a romantic comedy directed by Emilio Martínez-Lázaro. It was shot on location Sevilla, San Sebastián, Lasarte and Zarautz. It stars Clara Lago as Amaia and Dani Rovira as Rafa.

"Eight Basque Surnames" is a really good film, it is funny, entertaining and romantic too. Rafa is from Sevilla, and Amaia is from The Basque Country. She stays in Sevilla with her friends for a weekend and they know each other in a traditional pub in Sevilla, and he starts to fall in love for her. After a few days, he decides to travel to the Basque Country to see her. When he arrives and finds her, the adventures and funny situations start!

Everybody has to see it!

